

Tudor Place Manuscript Collection
Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre Papers
MS-23

Introduction

Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre (1922-1985), the daughter of Armistead Peter 3rd (1896-1983) and Caroline (Ogden-Jones) Peter (1894-1965), was the sixth generation of the Peter family to reside at Tudor Place. Tudor Place was continually owned and occupied by successive generations of the Peter family from 1805 until 1983.

The personal correspondence, literary manuscripts, scrapbook materials, financial documents, and printed material date from Anne Custis Peter's birth in 1922 through her 1953 marriage to Douglas Worthington Pearre (1915-1981). The majority of the collection is personal correspondence from family members and friends 1941-1952; the remainder of the collection revolves around literary manuscripts, pencil drawings, and watercolor sketches created by Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre from 1928 through 1944 and educational materials from elementary school through college years. There are incomplete diaries for the years 1941-1952, financial documents, and invitation lists for various social events. Souvenir and printed material includes programs and college alumni bulletins.

These papers were a part of the estate Armistead Peter placed under the auspices of the Carostead Foundation, Incorporated, in 1966; the name of the foundation was changed to Tudor Place Foundation, Incorporated, in 1987. Use and rights of the papers are controlled by the Foundation. The collection was processed and the register prepared by Susan I. Gray, a graduate student in Applied History at George Mason University. This document was reformatted by Emily Rusch and revised by Tudor Place archivist Wendy Kail in 2020.

Biographical Sketch

Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre (1922-1985), the daughter of Armistead Peter 3rd (1896-1983) and Caroline (Ogden-Jones) Peter (1894-1965), was born in Paris where her father was studying art. Her step-grandfather was Paul Wayland Bartlett (1861-1925), a renowned sculptor of the late 19th and early 20th centuries, and consequently she was introduced to the fine arts. She spent her early years under the supervision of her grandfather, Armistead Peter, Jr., (1870-1960) in Washington, D.C. There she attended Mrs. Cook's School, The Potomac School, and the Madeira School in Greenway, Virginia. She lived with her grandfather at Tudor Place while her parents maintained residence at the family farm in Cambridge, New York; she joined them during the summer months. Eventually she attended camp in New Hampshire, and travelled to Europe. She made her debut in November 1940 at a party held at Tudor Place.

Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre graduated from the Westover School in Middlebury, Connecticut, in 1940, and attended Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania, 1940-1944, graduating with a B.A. degree in economics. From 1944 through 1952 she worked in various administrative positions with the United States government and in private business. In March 1952 she was appointed an Intelligence Research Specialist (GS-7) with the Foreign Affairs Office of the United States State Department. While working in Washington, she assisted with the care of her grandfather, and lived in one of the local family properties in Georgetown, Washington, D.C. In 1950 she spent five months in Europe, primarily in France, where her maternal grandmother, Suzanne (Earle) Ogden-Jones Emmons Bartlett (1861-1953), maintained a home; she also travelled to Italy and Great Britain. On January 24, 1953, she married Douglas Worthington Pearre (1915-1981), an officer in the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce and a former state department official, at St. John's Church in Washington, D.C., and the wedding reception was held at Tudor Place.

The Pearres lived in Baltimore, Maryland; they moved to Washington, D.C., briefly, but returned to Baltimore in 1978. Two children were born to them. During her marriage, Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre was active in the Georgetown Garden Club and the National Society of Colonial Dames; she maintained a lifelong interest in art and music and spoke French fluently. She died June 6, 1985.

Scope and Content

The bulk of the material in this collection is personal correspondence received by Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre from 1940 when she entered Bryn Mawr College, until her marriage in January 1953. The main correspondence is from her mother, Caroline (Ogden-Jones) Peter. Other correspondents include her father, Armistead Peter 3rd; grandparents Suzanne (Earle) Ogden-Jones Emmons Bartlett, Armistead Peter, Jr., and Anna (Williams) Peter; and several contemporaries. The correspondence includes details of the daily lives of the Peter family and information about the operation of their farm in Cambridge, New York. There is also some information about the furnishings of Tudor Place. The letters written during World War II by Armistead Peter 3rd, who served in the United States Navy, reveal feelings on some of the major historical events of that era. Many of Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre's contemporaries represented in the collection were either in the military service or employed in war-time occupations, and their letters offer additional insights for the study of World War II.

The collection largely concerns education and social events. Education materials exist from Anne Custis (Peter) Pearre's entrance into first grade in 1928 through her graduation from Bryn Mawr College in 1944. Most of the major manuscripts are college research papers, but there are also essays on summer vacations, career goals, and personal interests from her early years. Under the subject of social events are invitation lists for various special events in her life including birthday parties, a 1941 debut, a 1944 graduation party, and her 1953 wedding. The financial documents include a series on bank statements and checks, stock reports, and bills and receipts 1940 through January 1953.

The scrapbook materials include her childhood drawings from 1927 through the late 1940s, pencil and crayon drawings, and watercolor sketches primarily of animals and natural scenery. Scrapbook and printed materials date throughout the collection, including holiday concert and theatre programs, pamphlets, certificates, news magazines, and college alumni bulletins from the late 1940s.
