Tudor Place Historic House & Garden
Wins 2020 Travelers' Choice Award by TripAdvisor

Washington, DC – Tudor Place Historic House & Garden announces it has been recognized as a 2020 Travelers' Choice award winner by TripAdvisor. Based on a full year of TripAdvisor reviews prior to any changes caused by the pandemic, award winners are known for consistency receiving great traveler feedback, placing them in the top 10% of hospitality business around the globe.

“Although it’s been a challenging year for travel and hospitality, we want to celebrate our partners' achievements. Award winners are beloved for their exceptional service and quality. Not only are these winners well deserving, but they are also a great source of inspiration for travels as the world begins to venture out again,” said Kanika Soni, Chief Commercial Officer at TripAdvisor.

Tudor Place reopened to the public on April 3, 2021 after being closed since Thanksgiving of 2020. Admission is free with a timed ticket entry. One ticket offers three options: (1) Self-guided tour of the Historic House (2) Garden visit or (3) both. The last tickets are scheduled at 3:00 p.m. and the grounds close at 4:00 p.m. The Historic House is open for self-guided visits instead of the usual docent-led tours. Visitors must check in at the Visitor Center then proceed through the house on their own. Signs are posted to help visitors navigate. The garden is an ideal place to picnic with many spaces that are limited to small groups of up to five people. Additional information and health and safety guidelines are listed at <https://tudorplace.org/visit/plan-your-visit-2/>
