

Educational Programs Internship Summer 2026

Tudor Place Historic House & Garden seeks qualified applicants for its education internship program. The program is designed to provide research opportunities and practical, hands-on experience to students pursuing a degree in museum studies, museum education, American history, public history, art history, architectural history or education. The ideal candidate is a creative and proactive individual who enjoys working with the public as part of a dynamic team.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Create pre- and post-visit lessons of Tudor Place's school programs for educators to use in the classroom
- Assist in planning programs for Fall (including Trick or Treat at Tudor Place and From Wax to Watts programs)
- Facilitate Girl Scout, Tudor Tots and other family programs under the supervision of the Education Coordinator
- Staff the exhibit in the historic house
- Assist with summer evening programs (2-3 times)
- Attend training sessions and ongoing program meetings as needed
- Perform administrative tasks as needed

Qualifications:

- Enrollment in a relevant graduate-level degree program; strong undergraduate applicants may be considered
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Excellent organizational skills and attention to detail
- Strength, dexterity and mobility to perform all duties
- Public speaking skills; prior experience leading tours a plus
- Prior experience working with educational programs and special events a plus

Schedule & Logistics:

- Approximately 21 hours/week with a flexible schedule Tuesday-Friday; total number of hours dependent on credit requirements of the student's academic institution if credit is being sought for the internship
- Approximate dates of internship are June 8, 2026 – August 14, 2026.
- Work will primarily be in person at Tudor Place, although some allowances may be made for remote work.
- Interns are eligible to receive a Museum Shop discount and free on-site parking.

Stipend: $1800
